National Sales Network
Student Conference & Career Fair
October 5 - 7, 2024

To Whom It May Concern:

The National Sales Network is excited to host our 10th Annual Student Conference & Career Fair!! We are welcoming over 200 top students from all over the country representing over 100 colleges and universities. Many students totaling over 900 apply every year, but only the stellar individuals are selected.

This year's Career Fair has over 20 Fortune 200 sponsors that are eager to engage with this very prestigious group of students. In addition to building a high-value network of business professionals, students will also experience two days of career coaching, mentoring, leadership development workshops, a sales and marketing pitch competition and panel discussions.

Please accept this letter to excuse your student from any classes or campus activities that will be missed while attending the NSN Student Conference & Career Fair Saturday, October 5th through Monday, October 7th, 2024.
